

The public may bring donations for the book sales to the circulation desk anytime during regular library hours.

Popular mysteries, novels, science fiction, and fantasy as well as classic literature, poetry and children's books are appreciated.

Textbooks are not accepted, but books from the following topics are welcome:

- General Nonfiction: biography, history and politics & social issues
- Reference: English and foreign language dictionaries, travel books, test guides, wedding planners, atlases & consumer guides
- Business reference: finance, careers & computers
- Wellness: diet, exercise, health, relationships, spirituality, psychology and relationships
- Home living: renovations, decorating, gardening, crafts & antiques
- Visual & Performing Arts: art, photography, music, dance & entertainment

Accept in good condition:

- books (including large print)
- CD's
- books-on-tapes
- videocassettes
- DVD's

Do NOT accept:

- records
- Readers Digest books
- magazines
- encyclopedia sets older than five years
- textbooks
- water damaged or musty smelling books